Legal Masterpieces

By VAN VECHTEN VEEDER

A COLLECTION of the best models of judicial and forensic eloquence, English and American. The subject-matter of the selections covers a very wide range and supplies a record of absorbing interest in dramatic form of many of the great public controversies of the past.

The historical and biographical sketches of the lawyers whose work is represented, and of the case or occasion on which they spoke are executed in a manner making the work unique among collections of great speeches, and of permanent historical value.
